Venice Japanese Community Center Scholarship Application (2017)

The Venice Japanese Community Center (VJCC) Scholarship Program rewards and recognizes academic performance among graduating high school students affiliated with the VJCC. Selection of scholarship recipient(s) will be based solely on merit without regard to financial need. The scholarships are to supplement expenses during the first year of attendance at an accredited college or university.

Eligibility:

The applicant is eligible to receive a scholarship if the student:

- a. Is a member of the VJCC or is a legal dependent of a VJCC member.
- b. Is graduating high school in the 2016-2017 academic year and has been accepted to enter college for the first time in the 2017-2018 academic year. Acceptance to a college at the time of submission of this application is not necessary; however, acceptance to a college is a requirement of the award.

Selection of Winners:

The VJCC scholarship committee will select the winner(s) for scholarship awards. The scholarship committee will be composed of VJCC members appointed by the VJCC Board of Directors. The decision of the scholarship committee is final. The scholarship committee will use the following criteria to evaluate applicants and select finalist(s).

- a. Prior academic performance as measured by grades and other documented records
- b. Most recent official transcript(s) must be submitted with this application in the same envelope.
- c. Participation in community service, in particular Venice Japanese Community Center services
- d. Participation in extracurricular activities
- e. Two letters of recommendation which must be included with this application in the same envelope.
- f. Essay submitted with the scholarship application

How to Apply:

To be considered for the VJCC Scholarship each applicant must complete the attached application and submit the completed application with supporting documents in the same envelope to the Scholarship Committee postmarked no later than 15 March 2017. It is required that the applicant send the application and supporting documents by Certified Mail. Mail to:
