Venice Japanese Community Center Scholarship Application (2019)

The Venice Japanese Community Center (VJCC) Scholarship Program rewards and recognizes academic performance among graduating high school students affiliated with the VJCC. Selection of scholarship recipient(s) will be based solely on merit without regard to financial need. The scholarships are to supplement expenses during the first year of attendance at an accredited college or university.

Eligibility:

The applicant is eligible to receive a scholarship if the student:

- a. Is a member of the VJCC or is a legal dependent of a VJCC member;
- b. Is graduating high school in the 2018-2019 academic year and has been accepted to enter college for the first time in the 2019-2020 academic year. Acceptance to a college at the time of submission of this application is not necessary; however, acceptance to a college is a requirement of the award.

Selection of Winners:

The VJCC scholarship committee will select the winner(s) for scholarship awards. The scholarship committee will be composed of VJCC members appointed by the VJCC Board of Directors. The decision of the scholarship committee is final. The scholarship committee will use the following criteria to evaluate applicants and select finalist(s).

- a. Prior academic performance as measured by grades and other documented records
- b. Most recent official transcript(s) must be submitted with this application. Transcript(s) may be in a sealed envelope; however, the sealed envelope must be included in the single outer envelope as described below in "How to Apply".
- c. Participation in community service, in particular VJCC services
- d. Participation in extracurricular activities
- e. Two letters of recommendation which must be submitted with this application. Each letter may be in a sealed envelope; however, the sealed envelope(s) must be included in the single outer envelope as described in "How to Apply".
- f. Essay submitted with the scholarship application

How to Apply:

To be considered for the VJCC Scholarship each applicant must complete the attached application and submit the completed application with all supporting documents by option 1 or option 2 as described below:

Option 1, USPS Certified Mail:

1. Complete this application in its entirety
2. Include all documentation required (application, essay, letters of recommendation and transcript(s) in a single outer envelope postmarked no later than 15 March 2019. Save your certified mail receipt.

3. Mail the single envelope by US Postal Service “Certified Mail” to:
Venice Japanese Community Center
Scholarship Committee, Attn: Elaine Koyama
12448 Braddock Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90066

4. For option 1, mailing by USPS Certified Mail is mandatory. Because of past problems, no other delivery service will be acceptable. Certified mail requires a trip to the post office; however, it protects the applicant and scholarship committee since the USPS will provide a “certified” receipt/document that the application was mailed on a specific date. If the mail is delayed or lost, the certified mail receipt will provide evidence to the committee that the application was sent on time and thereby will be considered for award. Please mail by USPS CERTIFIED MAIL only.

Option 2, email (new for 2019):

1. Complete this application in its entirety
2. Scan all documentation required (application, essay, letters of recommendation and transcript(s)) into a single PDF file. The PDF file name must include applicant’s last name.
3. Email the PDF file as an email attachment to scholarship@vjcc.com.
4. The email with attachment must be received no later than 15 March 2019.
5. Please note that the email address above is not secure. To minimize possible compromise of your personal information, please use option 1 to submit your application.

If you have any questions please call Elaine Koyama at (310) 822-6971 or email to scholarship@vjcc.com.
